Brian Rockey Lottery Director

After a long, cold winter and a prolonged spring, things are finally starting to warm up, which means we can finally get out and enjoy the state. We have some exciting new opportunities for players going into the summer, particularly the soon to be addition of a second $30 game and the Lotto America Ticket Snap promotion.

The introduction of the new $30 Supreme Gold game will hopefully be met with enthusiastic participation from our players, demonstrating a strong demand for higher-value lottery tickets. The addition of $30 games has not only expanded our product range but has also contributed to increased revenue, allowing us to continue supporting our beneficiaries.

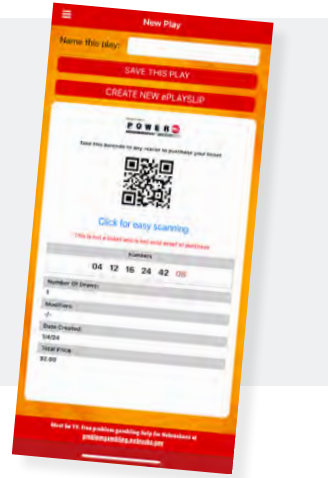

Furthermore, the Lotto America Ticket Snap promotion will engage our audience while promoting the addition of Lotto America to our roster of Lotto games. These initiatives are prime examples of our team's dedication to innovation and customer satisfaction. By continuously evolving our offerings and implementing creative marketing strategies, we have positioned Nebraska Lottery as a key player in building Nebraska. Thank you for your continued partnership and support in driving our mission forward.

Lotto America Ticket Snap Preview

Starting July 1, our Ticket Snap promotion will begin once again for a chance to win Husker Football and Volleyball tickets. For 2024, players who purchase Lotto America with All Star Bonus will receive a 7-digit voucher number with each $2 purchase. Players will have until August 6 to submit their vouchers for the drawing that will be held August 7. Players submit their Prize Voucher numbers using their MVP Club membership at nelottery.com.

ePlayslips

Introducing ePlayslips, now on the Nebraska Lottery's mobile app! Players can now create and save playslips for every Lotto game on their phone or tablet. To produce a ticket from an ePlayslip, scan the QR code directly from the device. Clicking on the "Click for easy scanning" link enlarges the code.

New $30 Scratch Game Supreme Gold

With the launch of Supreme Gold, there will be a second $30 Scratch game for players to purchase. Supreme Gold has a horizontal ticket design, prizes that start at $50, and a $50,000 top prize.

Lotto America Launch Recap

The Lotto America game launched in Nebraska on May 19 and has been well received by players. In the first two weeks of the game, approximately $100,000 in tickets were sold, and a pre-launch coupon promotion resulted in 9,368 coupons redeemed for free Lotto America tickets from May 19 to June 3.

No jackpot winners have been won in Nebraska yet, but 11 $100 prizes and 63 $20 prizes have been won in the first two weeks of the game.

Store Modifications

With summer starting, many retailers may be planning some remodeling projects. If you are planning some changes to your store that might affect your terminal setup, please be sure to notify the Nebraska Lottery of your plans. We request that you contact the Lottery Terminal Hotline (800-560-2919) at least one week in advance to ensure that Field Service Technicians will be available to temporarily remove or relocate equipment.

Two 2024 Truck$ & Buck$ Trucks Won

Can you smell the new truck scent? Two Ford F-150 trucks won in the 2024 Truck$ & Buck$ Scratch game are out there in the wild, with six more left to win.

The first truck was won by Colleen McKeon of Ravenna on May 6. It was a quick stop at Fill-N-Chill #04, 401 Grand Avenue in Ravenna to get snacks for her dad that netted McKeon her big win. "He loves chocolate stars and the only place I can get them is here," she said. "So I grabbed two bags of chocolate stars and five Truck$ & Buck$."

The shock of winning was so big McKeon said she started having technical difficulties with her phone.

"When I hit the truck I was shaking," she said. "I have the [Nebraska Lottery] app and I couldn't even open it to check."

A few weeks later, Billy Broyles of Chadron claimed the second truck. He was presented with his new truck at Common Cents Food Store, 301 West Main Street in Chadron on May 29.

Broyles said he usually sticks to Lotto games like Nebraska Pick 5, Powerball and Mega Millions, but something that day told him to get some Scratch tickets. After winning $45 on another ticket, Broyles decided to roll the dice.

"I bought 10 Truck$ tickets, which I never play," he said. "It paid off because I won the truck!"

A truck from the 2023 Truck$ & Buck$ Scratch game is still unclaimed. This winning ticket must be claimed by September 18, 2024. If the truck winning ticket expires, the truck will be used in a future Nebraska Lottery promotion.

Colleen McKeon won her truck from Fill-n-Chill in Ravenna.

Billy Broyles won his truck from Common Cents Food Store in Chadron.

Retailer Spotlight

The Nebraska Lottery traveled to Chadron on May 29 to celebrate its latest big winner and we ran into someone who had a hand in the very first Nebraska Lottery winner.

It was a beautiful, sunny day when we gave away the brand new 2024 Ford F-150 at Common Cents in Chadron. People from around Chadron came out in droves to see the new pickup, play some games and congratulate the winner, Billy Broyles.

One of those people in attendance was Lou Marshall, a former manager of Common Cents who has the distinction of being the first person in Nebraska to sell a Nebraska Lottery ticket.

At 12:01 a.m. on September 11, 1993, our first Scratch game, the $1 Nebraska Match Three ticket, went on sale at a party thrown by the Nebraska Lottery at Common Cents.

Standing front and center at the register was Marshall, who sold the very first Nebraska Lottery ticket to then vice-mayor of Chadron, Dr. John Gamby. Gamby won $1 on his ticket, but decided to hold onto it as a souvenir.

In the first 15 minutes, the store had sold its way through an entire pack, news reports from the time say. There was a line out the door full of Nebraskans from across the state eager to be one of the very first to try their luck.

"We sold so many that night," Marshall said. "I had a hundred dollar winner that night."

Over the next week, the store had sold more than 4,000 tickets, including a $500 winner and a few more $100 winners.

The first $5,000 winner from Nebraska Match Three was sold in Lincoln less than a week after the game started and another $5,000 winner was sold in Rushville, about 30 miles away from Chadron.

The lines were long, Marshall said, but she knew almost every customer by name.

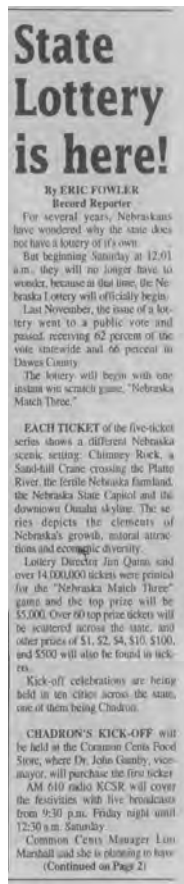

"I was like the mother to everybody," she said. "I know all the kids around here."

As she was speaking, a man was passing by and gave a big wave to Marshall and nodded in agreement. "This used to be the hang out spot," he said.

Having been around to sell the first Nebraska Lottery ticket and checking out the most recent big winner—the first winning Truck$ & Buck$ ticket ever sold in Chadron—Marshall smiled as she rolled an oversized foam die in the bed of the pickup for a chance to win more tickets before heading home.

She rolled a six and won 12 $1 Scratch tickets. Then she did it two more times.

"I knew I was lucky," she said. "I always knew it."

Newspaper clipping announcing the start of the Nebraska Lottery, and kick-off event in Chadron.

Five distinct scenes were featured on the very first Nebraska Lottery ticket.
